SPORTS

NIXIE WILL ENTER RACE

Fast Boat to Compete in Trans-Pacific Contest.

The yacht Nixie which will be seen in Honolulu harbor next May, is owned by Mr. Fulton G. Berry, one of the best known sportsmen on the Pacific Coast.
He is enthusiastic over the proposed ocean race to Honolulu and has entered his yacht for the event.

The Nixie is one of the best boats of her size on the Coast and was designed by the late W. G. Hall for Chas. E.
Billings and was sold to Mr. Berry about three years ago. She is 52 feet over all, 37 feet 1 w. l., 14 feet beam and 6 feet draught.

Although at present sloop rigged she will probably be altered to yawl rig for the ocean race as the one-masted vessels are harder to handle in heavy weather. She is a very fast boat and is at the top of her class.

While a fast boat she is also an admirable sea-going craft and has made several trips down the Coast to Santa Cruz. With a yawl rig she would prove a very able ocean-going yacht and any storms in the Pacific could be ridden out with ease. With the time allowance she will receive in the race she will prove a very hard craft to beat.

While T. W. Hobron was at the Coast this summer, he was on board during a sail out through the Golden Gate and in a stiff breeze and heavy sea she easily ran away from the pilot boat America in beating through the Heads. These schooners are very heavy, able vessels and it takes a fast sailer to beat them in the average weather prevailing in the vicinity of the Golden Gate.

ADAMS' ERRONEOUS GOLF IMPRESSION

"Why don't I play golf?" said Fred Adams to a friend yesterday, while performing the interesting evolutions incident to the mixing of a cocktail.
"Well, if you want to know, the real reason why I have never taken up golf seriously is that there isn't enough action in it for me. I did take a notion to the game once but a friend put me off."

"I happened to tell him that I thought of going in for the great Scottish game and asked him if he was wise to the rules."

"Sure," said he. "It's as easy as kissing your sister. First of all you make a mole-hill, then you place the ball on the top of the hill. Next thing you hit the ball and if you find it the same day, you win."

"That queered the game with me.
Life's too short for a twelve-hour go-as-you-please after a lost ball."

Adams was told that there is really more to the ancient and honorable game than his first impression led him to believe and he has promised to reconsider the matter with fair prospect of becoming a convert.

KENNEL CLUB IS BOOMING

Big Meeting Tonight— Eighty Charter Members.

More than ordinary interest is being displayed in matters pertaining to the kennel club now.

The new club is being given a great send-off and many who have signed the roll of charter members have already sent to the Coast for valuable and pure-bred dogs. This, as was the case in the poultry show, will cause considerable rivalry, thereby accomplishing some of the most important purposes of the organization, to foster and encourage the acquisition of purebred dogs, to improve the standard and to disseminate among members of the club knowledge of breeding and all matters pertaining to the welfare of the dog.

The members of the club will assemble this evening in the auction room of Will E. Fisher, for the purpose of perfecting organization and the election of permanent officers. The report of the committee on by-laws will also be received and acted upon.

The charter roll of the Hawaiian Kennel Club will close this evening, and parties wishing to sign same may do so by calling at the office of Will E. Fisher any time today or this evening.

The membership roll now musters about eighty and is as follows: Ralph A. Lyon, Colin Campbell, T. A. Simpson, W. R. Lewis, A. R. Rowat, C. E.
Meston, Job Batchelor, Thos. Sharp, C. Hustace, Jr., C. L. Crabbe, C. Charlock, Will E. Fisher, D. J. Styne, C.
L. Sprinks, Wm. Walters, H. M. Whitney, E. W. Campbell, Fred Whitney, Jess Woods, Geo. L. Bigelow, J. M.
Dowsett, C. T. Littlejohn, J. H. Catton, John Kelly, A. N. Campbell, H. B.
Gifford, F. B. Damon, G. G. Fuller, D.
Austin, J. E. Fullerton, R. W. Shingle, Juanita Beckley, C. E. King, L.
Abrams, Albert Waterhouse, Nelson B.
Lansing, E. R. Adams, John Fleming.

Sportlets.

baseball on Washington's birthday.

The Baseball League will need a new secretary and scorer, as well as an umpire.

Punahou and Iolani and Diamond Heads and Y. M. C. A. play "socket" next week.

Bowers, White, Hampton and Lemon are said to be after the position of baseball league umpire.

Ollie Sorenson is slated for the next vice-commodore of the Hawaii Yacht Club. George F. Renton may be commodore provided he can spare the time required to attend to the duties of the office in the coming busy year.

SPEAKS WELL OF CHAMBER- LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Mr. John Main, Manager for P. J.
Petersen & Company, Bloemfontein, So.
Africa, makes the following statement for the benefit of the public: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a big sale here and as we have been handling it for several years, we can confidently say that we sell more of it than we do of any other preparation of that kind." This medicine is especially recommended for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and can be given to the little ones with absolute security. For sale by all Dealers and Druggists, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

BOXERS DO MUCH WORK

Choice Array of Mitt Pushers at the Boathouses.

A busy afternoon was spent at both training quarters yesterday afternoon and at least two of the sparring bouts developed into small fights.

At the Healan boat-house the usual crowd of enthusiasts assembled to watch Sullivan work out and were much pleased by the showing he made.
He has not appeared to better advantage since he commenced to train.

Jim Brown, of the U. S. S. Iroquois, opened the ball and a couple of lively rounds ensued.

Then Young Nelson donned the mitts and went two fast rounds. Although greatly outweighed and outsized, Nelson went to his work with a will and his cleverness at times puzzled his lanky opponent. This lad has the making of a first-class boxer and would surprise a whole lot of the boys of his weight at the Coast. It is safe to say that he boxes in better form than anyone in Honolulu today and he has a right and left double swing that is a dead ringer for the late lamented Young Corbett's.

Sailor Morch did the looking-on act yesterday, but his place was badly taken by one Abramson, a tar from the U. S.
S. Iroquois. "Abe" is a splendidly built boy and of ideal proportions for a fighter. He is fashioned along Jack Dempsey's lines and wears his weight where it does the most good. The trouble with him is that he hasn't yet learned how to handle himself. He has a peach of a straight jab with the left but is too awkward to derive anything like the benefit from the punch that he should.

He pitched into Sullivan hammer and tongs for a couple of rounds and for a time it looked like a knock-out, one way or the other. Nothing serious developed, however, before the end of the bout was signaled.

Sullivan appeared to be in fine fettle physically and showed that he possesses any amount of endurance.

HUIHUI'S WORK-OUT.

When Sullivan had taken off his gloves the crowd trailed over to the Myrtle boathouse, where Huihui has established his training quarters. The native was a long time showing up and it transpired that he had been warming up with a punching bag, before coming to the boathouse. In this respect he resembles Jim Jeffries, for the big boilermaker has no idea of the matter of time in keeping an appointment and his weakness in this respect has ever been a sore point with his trainer, Billy Delaney.

It was pleasant waiting on the breeze-swept lanai of the Myrtle boathouse, however, with its magnificent view of land and sea and time did not hang heavily for many a story of sporting interest was told, pending the arrival of the gladiators.

Wahilani and Huihui were the first to hook up and went three rounds. The beginning of the bout was of the friendly tap order but in the third round the men livened matters up a bit and some hard knocks were exchanged.
Huihui did not shape as well as usual and looked a trifle too drawn. He also acted as if he were tired and has probably been doing too much work the last few days and needs a little let up.
Sunday saw him working exceedingly hard and yesterday he tramped up Tantalus. A breathing spell today will do the native no harm and is almost certain to benefit him considerably.

After Wahilani had done his stunt, Kupa, the boy who is scheduled to box Jack McFadden in Wailuku on February 10, put on the gloves with Huihui and sparred two warm rounds. Kupa has a long reach and is very willing.
Every now and again he lets one loose that is calculated to jar a man of his size. Perhaps his best blow is a right hook to the calash. Kupa's wind appeared to be somewhat in need of fixing yesterday.

This concluded the program for Huihui, but before the crowd dispersed the were treated to a round or so between Wahilani and Kupa in which the former more than demonstrated his superiority as a boxer.

Sullivan will work at 3 p. m. today and Huihui an hour later.
